TYPE OF PROPERTY

This is a rare opportunity to purchase a large attractive and characterful detached period property, which was built in the early 1900s and is situated close to the centre of Huntly and the train station making this property ideal for commuting to Aberdeen and Inverness. The property is charming, retaining many original features which can be seen as soon as you walk in the front door. The house which is spread over two floors is exceptionally spacious with five bedrooms, three public rooms to include a large formal Living Room, lounge, and Dining Room, two bathrooms and two shower rooms, and a spacious dining kitchen, making this property an ideal family home. For those working from home, The Gables, offers plenty of quiet rooms separate from the main living areas without compromising on living space. Externally, there is off-street parking to the side with a wooden garage which is in need of repair or replacement. The fully enclosed well-maintained mature garden at the rear is substantial and provides a private space with further garden ground to the front and side of the property. The sellers have advised that a planning application has been submitted to Aberdeenshire Council in respect of a change of use from Class 8 to Class 9 (Residential). Early viewing is a must to appreciate all this property has to offer and its traditional features!
